

Hana Hashimoto, Sixth Violin

ADAPTED FOR THE STAGE BY JESSICA CARMICHAEL
BASED ON THE BOOK BY CHIERI UEGAKI & QIN LENG (KIDS CAN PRESS)

Hana has signed up to play the violin at the talent show; the problem is she's only had three lessons! Her brother predicts disaster. But Hana practices and practices, inspired by her grandfather who played the violin every day when she visited him in Japan. As Hana takes the stage, she is overcome with nerves until she recalls her grandfather's words of encouragement and shows the audience how beauty can take many forms.

This imaginative story of perseverance is great for students K-6 and will especially resonate with those who have experienced self-doubt. It touches on themes of self-expression and intergenerational relationships, and is a great reminder that even the impossible can come true with dedication and courage.
