By John Patrick Shanley

Directed by Lisa Karen Cox

Required dates of availability in Gananoque, ON

Rehearsals - August 19 - 31, 2024

Tech - September 2 - 5, 2024

Run - September 5 - 29, 2024

Auditions will be held in person in Toronto in late November.

From the Director:

Unless race is indicated in the character description, I strongly encourage and welcome actors of all races and ethnicities to apply for all roles. The actor's and character's intersectionalities will be dramaturgically considered in this selection and rehearsal process. Ages are considered reference points for the characters, not the actors.

Submissions

Please submit a headshot, resume and the character(s) you wish to be considered for to Marta McDonald, Assistant General Manager at auditions@1000islandsplayhouse.com by the end of day on Wednesday November 15, 2023. Please use "DOUBT audition submission" in the subject line.

If you require additional assistance during the audition process, please let us know so we can accommodate individual needs. We ensure a safe, respectful process built on consent and comfort with TIP's health and safety, and anti-oppression protocols in place.

Character Descriptions:

Sister Aloysius: The school principal, Sister Aloysius Beauvier, is in her fifties or sixties. She is watchful, traditional, and unsentimental. She has a stern devotion to duty, a belief in hierarchy and desire to protect. She has also loved, was loved and has a sense of humour.

Sister James: She is in her twenties, new to the school and finding her way. There's sunshine in her heart, though she's reserved. Ideologically, Sister James stands between Sister Aloysius and Father Flynn.

Father Flynn: A priest, Father Flynn, in his thirties. He is working class. He is warm with a desire to connect. He is relational and community oriented. He understands and acknowledges the way the Church operates; yet at times chooses to go his own way.

Mrs. Muller: Donald Muller's Mother. Mrs. Muller, a Black woman in her late 30s to 40s. She's on red alert and desires the best for her son.
